SPLENDID RACING AT JOLIET.

There was almost sensational racing at Ingalls' Park yesterday. Three of the finishes were extremely close. Then came shockingly sudden reversal of form, and a remarkable fast race by Paul Griggs.

The afternoon's feature was a selling race at eight and one-half furlongs and out of it came the prettiest finish of the meeting. The ring on a mere class notion made Babe Murphy a 7 to 5 chance and offered 8 to 1 against Mandolina, who had won a startling good race her last out. Old Evanatus opened at a short price but drifted to 30 to 1 at the close. It was a well contested race all the way. Dorsey got Evanatus off well and although he wanted to sulk the boy managed to keep him going. Olivia L, with a feather on her back, opened a big gap on the far turn and at the three-quarter pole seemed to have the race won. Rounding into the stretch, however, there was a general closing up and at the sixteenth pole Evanatus, Mandolina, Olivia L and Babe Murphy were on about even terms. Murphy cracked at the seventy yard mark and the other three clinked it out. Evanatus won in the last two strides by a short head, with Mandolina the same distance in front of Olivia L. Dorsey's handling of Evanatus was clever.

Out of the sixteen maidens in the first race the talent selected Ben Van, making him a 2 to 1 favorite. He won a good, game race, after a stormy passage.

Algareta, the natural favorite, took the two-year-old race after a brush through the stretch with Presbyterian.

The Plutocrat was as good as 5 to 1 for the mile race and he beat Newgatherer, the odds-on favorite, a long way.

Paul Griggs stepped the first half in his race in 47 1/4. This stood the others on their heads and the gray colt won rather easily in 1:12 1/4.

Sam Summerville drew in yesterday and lost a bit. He is a great addition to the bookmaking brigade.

It was Ladies' day, and a crowd of 3,500 was out.

He ran a good race. Trickster also had a stormy passage.
